Hailed as “a great artistic talent” by the A&B Foundation, American pianist MICHAEL ANGELUCCI holds First Place awards in the Bradshaw and Buono International Competition and the American Prize National Competition. His compelling craft has brought him to exciting venues including Carnegie-Weill Hall and the historic Auditorium de la Salle du Dome in France. Recent highlights include a two-week tour with the Tahoe Symphony Orchestra and a residency with ARTIST Music Academies of Maryland. A prolific clinician, Dr. Angelucci has taught for Peabody Piano Week and the Ivy International Music Festival, and is a frequent jurist for events throughout the mid-Atlantic. He is currently a full-time faculty at the Peabody Institute, where he teaches for both the Preparatory and Conservatory divisions. His students hold top prizes in numerous competitions, and have been accepted at prestigious festivals and music programs.

Michael earned the Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from Peabody, and his Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Maryland. He now makes his home in Baltimore, surrounded by an overabundance of scores, an overworked Boston grand, and a frequently rotten (but eternally lovable) miniature labradoodle named Gus.
